

Many notable passengers arrived in New York on the last trip of the Olympic. Among the favorite children on board were Charles Amory, Jr., and Miss Grace Amory, whose parents are prominent socially in New York. Underwood & Underwood.

Miss Constance Delaney (at left) and Miss Judith M. Smith were two popular members of the younger set who arrived recently from Europe on the Olympic. Paul Thompson.

Above—Mrs. John Barrymore, widely known under her pen name of Michael Strange, was an arrival from Europe on La France. Her bobbed hair surprised her friends. Underwood & Underwood.

French troops feeding German women and children seems an unusual thing. Photograph shows French army field kitchens at Oppau, where a great explosion in the dye works killed hundreds and made thousands homeless. Underwood & Underwood.

These two men, Clifford Webster (at right) and John Hope, his mechanic, recently made a flying boat speed record of 171 miles an hour, a rate that compares favorably with most land machines. Underwood & Underwood.

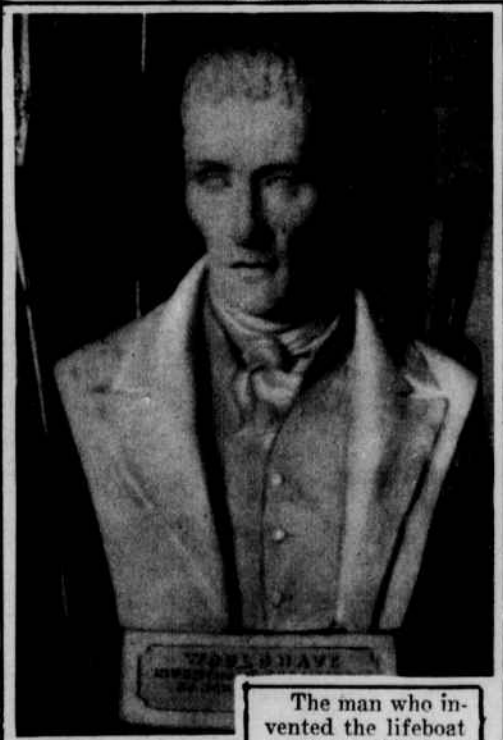

Work on the great vehicular tunnel under the Hudson is being rushed. Picture shows part of the heading on the Manhattan side at Canal and West streets. International.

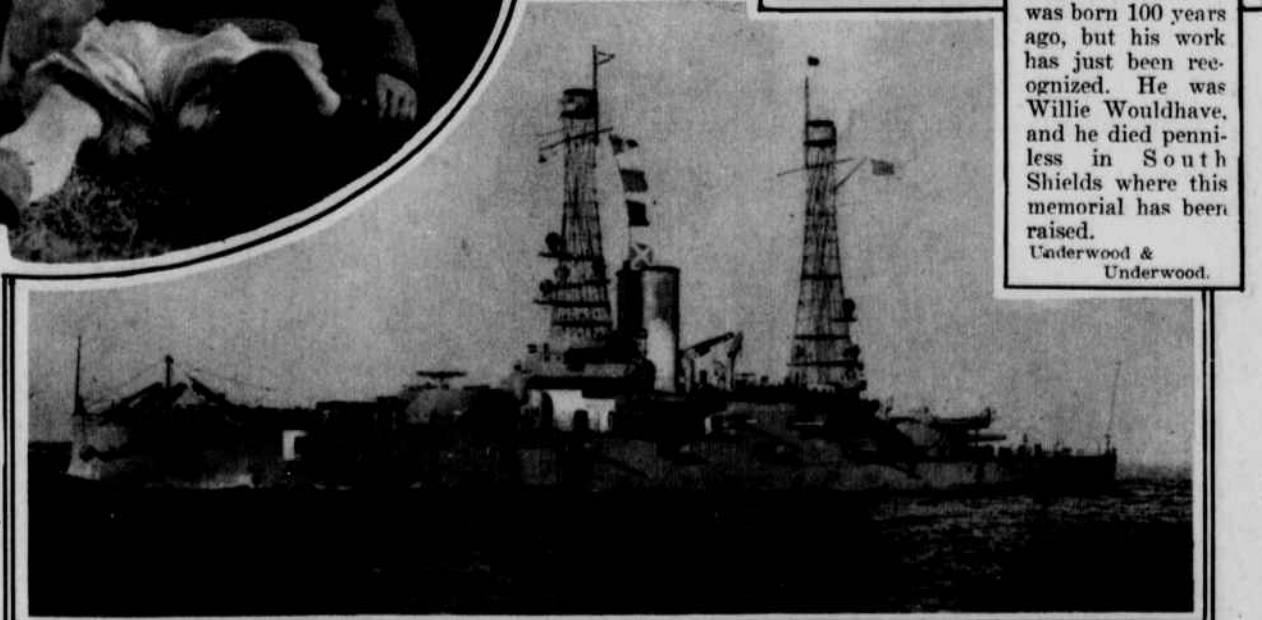

Above—This baby, Wesley Johnson of Medford, Mass., is safe from kidnappers, for "Bay State Tantalizer" is his pal and possesses sixty-three pounds of muscle, jaw and teeth. Photo taken at the Somerville, Mass., dog show. International.

At left—Removing the wreck of the burned Granite State, New York Naval Militia headquarters, at Ninety-sixth street and the Hudson. International.

The man who invented the lifeboat was born 100 years ago, but his work has just been recognized. He was Willie Wouldhave, and he died penniless in South Shields where this memorial has been raised. Underwood & Underwood.

This second line battleship of 11,552 tons, the Illinois, replaces the 104 year old Granite State as a training vessel for the New York Naval Militia. She carries eight twelve inch guns in her main battery and eighteen guns of lesser calibre in the secondary battery. United States Navy Official.